

Inspiration Sources

5 sources of inspiration that are not Pinterest

1. Nature: Probably the most obvious but certainly we can learn a lot from nature and how it recreates and reinvents itself with the seasons and all the life around and in it.
2. Library: Visit your local library and walk around taking a look at the layout the section markings and colors and books, the history and science sections may bring some new creative ideas.
3. Books & Book Stores: Fiction books, art books, craft magazines are all great sources of inspiration. Also a stroll inside a book store will give you lots of great ideas from books, book sections and the various displays. The current affairs section is also a good area to explore.
4. Talk to a kid: Kids are full of imagination and ideas, even the most extraordinary ideas can inspire more practical ideas
5. Visit a craft store such as Michaels, Hobby Lobby, Jo-Ann's Fabrics, etc. You will certainly get a lot of inspiration and can envision giving your own perspective to some of the items that fancy your creativity.
6. BONUS: Reuse, Recycle... how can you repurpose and transform anything?